State Fair Highlighted By Queen

"I'M SO NERVOUS I'VE LOST SIX LBS."

... THE THINGS THEY SAY

Reporters are naturally nosy and their probings make trite reading, But the answers they get are the food-for-thought for millions, especially when coming from the mouths of beauties like the girls in Eisenhower's football Homecoming Court. Cheryl "Shorty" Peterson is blonde vivacious—and she is anything but short. "I've been so nervous I've lost six pounds. No, five and a half," she adds.

"Not me," says Connie Fisk. "I've been through all this once before you know." And she has. Connie, an accomplished cheerleader and perennial flirt, was the junior darling of last year's basketball festival.

But the real "veteran" of the group is blonde (it seems like most all girls these days are blonde!) pom pon leader, Gail Campbell. Gail, who would probably be water skiing at Arrowhead now if the lake weren't frozen over, is the reigning Miss Lake Arrowhead. And in the Miss World beauty pageant, the bright-eyed senior was among the 10 finalists for Miss California. Her poise, while in front of the cameras and judges, was an inspiration.

The one who should be called "Shorty" is itty-bitty Jan Mason. She stands a shade over four feet, eleven, but it's all woman, and man, can she yell! One of these pep rallies, she's going to win an interclass cheering contest for the seniors all by her li'l ole' self; that is, if the juniors ever run out of some of that enthusiasm.

To Be Crowned At Game Tonight

Five Floats Featured

Eisenhower's Football Homecoming game will be played tonight, at 8, with Bonita, at the Colton Stadium. During half-time there will be the annual Homecoming ceremony, including the crowning of the Queen.

The Homecoming Court, which was elected at a pep assembly two weeks ago, consists of five girls. One of them has been chosen queen, and will be crowned during the half-time ceremony. The members of the court are Paulette Chmielewski, Connie Fisk, Jan Mason, Shorty Peterson, and Gail Campbell.

The theme of this year's Homecoming is "State Fair". All the activities to be presented will be planned around this theme. This includes the floats which have been made by on-campus clubs.

Parents See Ike Classes

Tuesday, October 16, as traditional, the junior class held a cake sale at the annual Back-to-School-Night for parents. This was planned so that the ing Eisenhower had a chance to go to each of their sons or daughters classrooms, and meet all of their teachers as well.

There was a Parent-Teacher Association meeting at 7, following which all of the parents followed the daily schedule. After the final bell, the parents retired to the cafeteria for cake served by the junior class as a money-making project for the Junior-Senior Prom.

The Back-to-School-Night was enjoyed by all who attended, and also proved very interesting for both parents and teachers.

Clubs featuring floats will be Thespians, G.A.A., Sen-Tetts, and Azurettes. The junior and senior classes will also take part in this event. Judging of the floats will take place at the half-time ceremony.

The band and drill team will also perform during this ceremony.

The Homecoming Dance will be held in the cafeteria after the game, from 10 to 12 p.m. The admission price is $1 per couple.

Mums will be sold by Azurettes, both at the game and at the dance for $1.

There was a Homecoming Assembly this morning.

PSAT-IOWA Tests Will be Given

Two of the most important scholastic examinations, the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test and the lowa tests, will be given this month.

Seventy-eight students have signed to take the PSAT, to be given Saturday, October 20, at 8 a.m. in the cafeteria by Mr. Matuschka. The test was designed for high school juniors who plan to attend college. An indication of how well the student will do when he gets to

Student Council Minutes

October 12, 1962

The meeting was opened by President Randy Wheaton. The minutes were read and approved.

The purchase orders were read and approved.

The gym symbol was discussed. The scheduled completion date for the gym was set for November 28. The discussion for the symbol was tabled until October 18.

Homecoming was discussed and there will be five floats at Homecoming. The judges have been picked and they will be given a rating sheet for each float.

Mr. Dowd reminded the council of Eisenhower Day at KCHU TV channel 18, October 13. Members were to be at the Orange Show stadium at 3:30. The show started at 4 and was an hour long.

The minutes from the T.C.L. meeting of October 3 were read.

The rooter bus situation was brought up and it was explained that students were too noisy. The buses may be continued in the future. The meeting was adjourned at 9:55.

October 15, 1962

Randy Wheaton opened the meeting and the minutes and purchase orders were read and approved.

Mr. Ryan spoke about the gym symbol. The final discussion will be made after more consideration.

Homecoming events were gone over. Tona Krich is in charge of all the event happenings.

Tony Radcliffe spoke about decorating the campus in an artistic manner. The meeting adjourned at 9:55.

JOHN COOK IS MERIT SCHOLAR SEMI-FINALIST

Among some 11,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semi-finalist status in the National Merit Scholarship competition is Eisenhower's Johnn Cook. This honor moves John a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice.

The qualifying examination, a test of educational development, was given in more than 16,000 high schools last march. The semi-finalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in United States territories.

John's main ambition is to obtain a college education, and the prospect

John M. Stalnaker, president of the non-profit National Merit Scholarship Corporation, described the semifinalists as "representatives of the best of a new generation of young people who are increasingly conscious of the importance of intellectual achievement."

THREE ATTEND SPECIAL SCHOOLS

By MARTHA PRICE

Three of our talented seniors, Marsha Rose, Pam Hooten, and Janie Jones, made the most of their summer vacations by taking advanced courses at special summer schools.

Marsha Rose, who plans to make Foreign Service her career attended the Monterey Institute of Foreign Studies, where because of her excellent French.

she was placed in an Advanced French course with students of 22 or older. Marsha lived in the French House with seven other girls, where a man and woman from Bordeaux, France, supervised them and saw to it that only French was spoken. Marsha was away at school for seven weeks and attended classes from 8 to 6 each day, including Saturday. The social highlight was a party commemorating Bastille Day. All in all, Marsha feels that it was a summer well-spent.

Our budding Sarah Bernharts, Janie Jones and Pam Hooten, trekked off to far-away Northwestern University in Chicago, to take part in a drama course at the National High School Institute in Speech. The course included

Colleges Send Representatives

On October 23 a representative from Chapman College, Oregon, will be on Eisenhower's campus to talk to studednts interested in the college and its activities. Pepperdine College, of Los Angeles, will send a representative on January 9. If enough students are interested St. Mary's College of California will send a representative. The University of California, will hold an open house Saturday, October 20, in Santa Barbara, and the University of California, Riverside, will have an open house on Saturday, October 27. On November 3, Pomona will have their open house. U.C.L.A. is also going to have an open house in the near future.

Seven Eastern women's colleges will send a representative if enough students are interested. The colleges are the following:

such stage craft as drama, costuming, lighting, make-up and public speaking. One of the highlights of this course were the field trips to see the musical "Sound of Music" and Gospel Singer, Ella Fitzgerald.

All of the students in this class were required to appear in the final drama project which consisted of nine plays put on by the students themselves. In this project Pam Hooten portrayed "Emily" in the play "Our Town" and Janie Jones appeared as "Lou-Annette", a French maid, in a play entitled "Fashion."

Janie, who is the secretary of Fine Arts on the Student Council and also the assistant director of the forthcoming Drama Class presentation "Teach Me How to Cry," had a part in the chorus line of "Hey, Look Me Over."

Pam and Janie enthusiastically recommend that any junior who is active in drama would find it advantageous to take this course.

Iowa Tests ...

(Continued from Page 1) college may be shown by the test. Several scholarships are granted on the results of the PSAT. The test will measure two kinds of scholastic ability-language usage and mathematics. This test costs $1 and will last about four hours.

All senior high students are required to take the IOWA tests. These are not I.Q. tests, but achievement tests which record a student's educational pro-gress.

The IOWA tests will be given for the first three hours of October 30 and 31 and November 1 in all first period classes.

Enthusiasm for the "ultimate sport" of surfing has spread as far inland as Eisenhower High School, and it was found that there are some accomplished surfers at this school. With every other issue of the paper we plan to feature a surfer and a favorite surf spot.

Robbie Bader, first surfer of the month has been surfing for over a year. His first board was a Tiki, and he started surfing at Huntington Cliffs. Now his favorite surfing spots are Hagerties, Refugio, and San Clemente.

Last week Robbie ordered an 8-foot 10-inch Dewey Weber, with a 3-inch Bolsa wood strip and competition orange panels. Robbie thinks that the future of surfing will be OK if it is cleaned up.

Azurettes Hold Initiation, Plan for Homecoming

Azurettes have been busily preparing for initiation and their part in the Homecoming.

Eighteen new members were selected from those attending a tea held at the home of Janice Mason. Formal initiation ceremonies were held by candlelight at Conni Fisk's last Sunday evening.

New members are: Seniors, Janie Arnold, Maryjean Gubey, Diana Lockridge, Bonnie Kulikoff, Kathie Hendrickson, and Stephanie Toth. Juniors, Deanna Ridge, Adrianne Kiss, Pat Burnett, Linde Williams, Margy Garland, Judie Wyant, and Veda Hobson. Sophomores, Becky Alexander, Colleen Townsend, Claudia Heneise, Karen Malinka, and Linda Christelman.

Once again the Azurettes will be selling mums at the Homecoming. This has been an annual moneymaking project since the club started during Eisenhower's first year. The madness of building a float has afflicted Azurettes, as well as many other clubs on campus. The girls are working hard to make their float better than ever.

A popular surfing spot is Bolsa Chica, located one-fourth mile north of Huntington Pier.

The surf runs biggest in late May or early June with swells ranging from three to six feet in the summer, and from three to eight feet in the winter months. Usually the fourth swell-out of a set is the best suited for riding, both in size and speed.

Surfing is best in the morning, because an afternoon sea breeze results in choppy waters.

Notes On Sen-Tetts

After a gala night of initiation, the new members are ready to join in the fun, work, and excitement of being a Sen-Tett.

The initiation was held at Debbie Hamre's home, and Annie Champion, Debbie and Eileen Garrett worked hard to make it the best and most successful ever.

Pat Romero, Kriss Randall, Dee Dee Wildoner, Gail Patterson, Nancy Haesloop, Stevie Rea, Pat Connors, Phyllis Mote, Arlene Rose, Jackie Kaminski, Cheryl Lamb, Sandi Shook, Geri Miller, Connie Fagan, Anne Houbion, Brigette Weich, Judy Tenlecki and Beatriz Ochoa will long remember the fine Sen-Tett initiation.

Sen-Tetts has been very busy lately with many different activities. One of these they are working on is their float for Homecoming. The float is very attractive and they are hoping to place in the float competition for Homecoming.

Doug Wellon's 1938 Ford takes top honors this week.

'KAR KORNER'

By Allen Richardson

This week's car is a 1938 Ford. It's proud owner is doug Wellons, a senior at E.H.S. It is a coupe (one-seater) with a very nice interior. It has black and white tuck and roll. The headliner is also white. Of course, it has dual pipes for that stylish look, and white-walls set off the exterior. Radio and heater are two more added features.

Doug says he has never had it timed but it torks on pretty well. It has a rebuilt '51 Mercury (V-8) flathead with a 2-barrel carburetor. A 3-speed floor shift (conversion kit) also helps for better pick up. It has a Packard transmission and a Ford rear end. That must be some car seeing as it has a Ford body, and rear end, and a motor from a Mercury, a transmission from a Packard, and a conversion kit floor shift.

Doug plans to paint it black and put on chrome rims. To put in new tuck and roll, and to rechrome the bujpers and windows. He also plans to get a dropped axle.

Officers Chosen For House of Representatives

Bill Christelman, the new Speaker of the House, and Secretary Debbie Hamre presided over the first meeting of the House of Representatives on October 11.

The House of Representatives is the intermediate link between the students and the student council. There is one representative from each first period class. Through this organization students voice their opinions in student government. The house meets once a month and the representatives report to their first period class on matters which were discussed and the decisions which were made.

Hi-Tri HI-Lites

Tuesday, October 23, a make-up artist is coming to the Hi-Tri meeting to give members helpful hints on make-up, it was disclosed October 9 at an initiation dinner held at The Mug. Other coming events consist of a hayride in mid-November and a December charity Christmas party. On January 15 the club will have a welcome-back party following Christmas vacation.

During the year Hi-Tri will sponsor their annual Sadie Hawkins dance. It is open to the public, and will be held in the cafetorium. Various booths will be placed around the school.

Hungry Eagles Attempt To Escape Two Game Slump

Cats Favored to Win Homecoming Tilt Tonight

Eisenhower's hungry Eagles, underdogs in their own Homecoming for the first time in their short, grid history, host high scoring Bonita tonight, at Colton Stadium. It will be the Eagles' first "home contest" since last season.

Ike, loaded with juniors and sophs, has been shutout in its last two outings, by counts of 19-0 and 13-0, after going unbeaten and unscored upon in its initial pair. The Rialto eleven dropped both Lennox and Colton by similar 13-0 margins.

"We've made some sweeping changes in the backfield," relates Coach Smaha. "And the shake-up might not stop there." The drastic alterations — all aimed at adding some punch to a listless attack — have dropped a few starters and shifted the ones that are left. Big Boyce Gire has been moved from fullback to right half, replacing junior Angelo Madrigal. John Blair, once a fixture at quarterback, is at full and Van Dunlop replaces him at the signal calling spot. In a duel of southpaws, Kenny Heldt takes over Joel Bailey's left half position.

Still, the most glaring faults remain virtually untouchable; too many penalties and cases of downright slippery fingers.

Against Rubidoux last Friday, a vastly

Eyeing the Eagles

By SKIP MORGAN

After two impressive performances in shutting out Lennox and Colton, it seems the Eagles have come down to earth, and are equal to their pre-season expectation.

The Chino and Rubidoux games have been a complete reversal of the two pre-season encounters.

Not only has the offense been completely shut-out in their two league games, but the once proud Chinese Bandit defense has developed some unexpected holes. But with this year's tight, tight T.C.L. race, it would be foolish to write the season off after only two games.

With three minutes of play last Friday, it looked as if Eisenhower would go home with a 1-1 record. But Dave Cervantes picked off John Blair's third down pass in the end zone to put the icing on the cake as far as the Rubidoux fans were concerned. But Larry Diaz' 55-yard run back of Boyce Gire's punt with the clock showing only one minute, was just more than the stunned Eisenhower faithful could take. Many took their bitterness out on the refs who did seem to be missing some obvious pass interference penalties late in the game, they thought.

The Eagles can win their way back into the hearts of their fans by continuing their miraculous record of never losing a homecoming game. It would take a better performance than last week's to beat the always tough Bonita Bearcats, who downed Rubidoux 26-0 and had allowed only six points scored against them before being upset by Montclair Friday,19-12.

SPORTS

inferior team by statistics, Eisenhower was penalized 95 yards, had four passes picked off, fumbled a couple more times and had a punt run back 60 yards for a touchdown in the closing minutes. Even in victory the Eagles lost a lone TD at Lennox and two more at Colton due to rally-killing infractions.

A year ago, Bonita made a habit of springing upsets at Eisenhower's expense. In Mount Sac Stadium at the Bearcats' homecoming, E.H.S. saw a 19-0 lead melt into a 28-25 loss. In basketball, they did it twice, and even in baseball the cellar-dwelling Cats dealt the blow that knocked the Eagles out of first. This time Eisenhower will be trying to escape the cobwebs of its eighth place standing.
