V. Information Items

- Rialto Unified Parent and Family Institute (Mr. House & Mrs. Gavini)
  - Mr. Kenny House shared the monthly parent institute newsletter and the events that are scheduled district wide for the next month.
- Exceptional Grading Practices (Mrs. Curtiss & Dr. Burciaga)

- Mrs. Curtiss and Dr. Burciaga presented the journey so far toward “Exceptional Grading Practices”. Attendees engaged in determining overarching grades based on scenarios. The history of grading practices, the miscommunication and inconsistencies in communication were shared as the reason for focusing on exceptional grading practices. Mrs. Curtiss shared the current development of standards based grading practices. Dr. Burciaga shared the current progress of the Standards Based Grading committee and the desire of the committee to move from communicating averages to communicating skill achievement.
  - Parent feedback included; excitement about the direct communication and understanding the reasoning of the transition. Questions about who sets the standard and targets at each grade level. Request for overcommunication to families, community and district personnel.
- Parent Involvement Policy (Dr. Delgado & Dr. Hodgens)
